Greenwood Wildlife Rehabilitation Center – A squirrel that had been hit by a car was brought into Greenwood with blood around his mouth. The day after the animal arrived, our rehabilitator noticed a tooth at the bottom of his cage. Our staff checked the squirrel’s mouth only to find that now both of his top front incisor teeth were missing. These teeth are especially essential to mammals like squirrels. After a little over a week, the incisors had started to grow back. He was soon released back into his original neighborhood. Just before we were getting ready to release him he started to gnaw on the caging, as if to say, “I can use my teeth again, now let me out of here!” $1 a day can provide sturdy, nibble-proof caging for endless amounts of orphaned squirrels that need a cozy place to recuperate before returning to the wild once again.

COMMUNITY SHARES DONOR INFORMATION

Member Excellence

Community Shares supports our member nonprofits by annually reviewing and certifying them for participation in workplace giving campaigns. Community Shares’ Member Excellence Standards ensure that donors can trust that their donation continues to support excellent and innovative nonprofit organizations.

Your Paycheck Contribution

We work directly with your employer to ensure your gift reaches the nonprofit of your choice. Paycheck contributions are received from your payroll office throughout the year and distributed to your designated charities monthly. With no minimum donation amount, all donor designations are honored.

Transparency and Trust

Nothing is more important than your trust. Community Shares of Colorado is committed to the best practices in workplace giving and managing all donations with financial clarity. Through a cost-share model with our member nonprofits, Community Shares retains a campaign management fee on our annual net campaign total of approximately 10%. Our member nonprofits are aware of this fee and recognize it as a low-cost, highly effective opportunity to reach new donors and provide supporters with a year-round giving option.

We’ve expanded our services through CSR Solutions of Colorado, a collaborative partnership between Community Shares and Spark the Change Colorado.
Donor Choice

Community Shares of Colorado is committed to choice in giving. If you don’t see the nonprofit you are looking for, you are welcome to write-in any 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization of your choice. We retain a 15% management fee on all write-in designations. Organizations are made aware of this fee at the time of pledge notification.

Tax Deduction Eligibility

Donations made through workplace giving are eligible for a deduction on your annual income tax. IRS reporting laws require you to provide a copy of your pledge form as well as a copy of your final paystub of the year showing the total amount withheld as a charitable contribution.

Do you have a question about your pledge?

Please contact us with any questions about your gift at (303) 861-7507 | giving@cshares.org | www.cshares.org
